UNIVERSITE CONCORDIA
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

A Unique Opportunity

You may never again be surrounded by the smorgasbord of riches that University life offers. There are so many things to try: lectures, parties, sports, politics, music, religion, art, theatre, to name a few. It is the best time in your life to develop new interests, to grow in knowledge, and to discover something of the truth of who you really are. Personal values become clearer and social awareness sharpens as you begin to make the choices which will shape your adult life.

You will find that being a seeker of truth is not just a matter of having the right ideas. It is a journey of the whole person which requires reflection and discernment. Discovering a sense of who you really are, feeling comfortable with the mystery of life that you share, and profiting from the wisdom and experience of your tradition: these are the issues of truth and the spirit.

Your University chaplains share that journey and concern. We are very much part of the university community and are familiar with student life. We also know about specific issues on campus. As you get to know us through conversation or particular programs, at parties or at worship, you'll probably find we can relate to you as friends.

To the life of the university, we add a concern for personal growth and community awareness. We encourage the development of personal insights, as well as a sense of responsibility towards some of the social and spiritual problems of our day.

Concordia Campus Ministry is made up of an ecumenical team of men and women from the mainline Christian denominations. Working as a team is essential to us in our self-understanding. It is in this spirit we in turn relate to the students, staff and faculty in a common concern for the issues and problems facing the university community.

“You will find that being a seeker of truth is not just a matter of having the right ideas. It is a journey of the whole person which requires reflection and discernment.”

CONCORDIA CA

Bob Nagy, RC Chaplain (Loyola)

Bob has worked in University chaplaincy for 20 years. His interests and concerns range from the arts and music to tennis, hockey and mountaineering, to theological and philosophical inquiry to the everyday human struggle for love, understanding, acceptance, justice and freedom. Bob is actively involved in creative liturgy, marriage preparation and spiritual direction. He sees his work in marriage preparation as a time for warm and deep human encounters.

Daryl Lynn Ross,
RC Chaplain (Loyola)

A graduate of Concordia, Daryl is a trained spiritual director and has a wide range of experience in ministry. As a mother of two boys, she is accepting and down-to-earth, and affirms the pre-eminent dimension of faith as the path to growth in knowledge and love. Her concerns include women's issues and contemporary expressions of faith.

Peter MacAskill,
United Church Chaplain (SGW)

As Pastor of Northlea United Church in Laval, Peter spends two half-days a week on the SGW Campus. He's available for counselling, bible study, and has been active in Christian Fellowship for many years.

Bob Wismer, Anglican Chaplain (SGW)

Bob is at Concordia on a part-time basis. The rest of the week he serves as Assistant in the Church of St. James the Apostle just down the street from the Hall Building. Bob runs a weekly lunch hour service for students at St. James and enjoys meeting and talking with new students.

CAMPUS MINISTRY STAFF

Matti Terho, Lutheran Chaplain (SGW)

Matti comes from Finland and was ordained a minister in 1969. He has been with Sir George Williams Campus Ministry for some fourteen years. Matti is involved in student, marital and family counselling, and is actively involved in various University bodies and functions each year. He is an active sportsman and is especially passionate about cross-country skiing and long-distance running.

Peter Coté, RC Chaplain (Loyola)

Peter has degrees from Concordia in History, Theology and Religious Studies and has been active in Campus Ministry, both as a student and chaplain, since 1981. Peter brings to Campus Ministry an interest in theological reflection and liturgy, a concern for social justice and outreach and a love of the outdoors. He is married and has two children.

Roslyn Macgregor, Anglican Chaplain (Loyola)

Ros is pursuing studies in Theology at Concordia and is serving part-time on the Loyola Campus. Amongst her initiatives Ros has begun an ecumenical prayer service at the Loyola Chapel and looks forward to being on campus where she can meet and speak with students on an informal basis.

Michelina Bertone S.S.A.,
RC Chaplain (SGW)

Known as Mickie by her friends, Michelina is a former high school teacher with degrees in Theology from Concordia and Educational Counselling from Ottawa. Mickie loves working with youth individually and in group settings. She will be working four days a week on the downtown campus and looks forward to an exciting and enriching second career.

TAFF 1987-1988

Marie Hooper, Secretary
(Belmore House, Loyola)

Marie has been with the team for 3 years. Her friendly manner and openness help make Belmore House an inviting home-away-from-home. She incorporates her love of calligraphy into her work in Campus Ministry. Marie is presently apprenticing in therapeutic bodywork. Campus Ministry is a wonderful place in which to grow, according to Marie. She is the mother of a teenage daughter.

Sandra DeRome, Sacristan-Manager
(Loyola Chapel)

Sandra manages the Chapel affairs and serves as pastoral assistant to the Loyola Chapel Community. She is also responsible for coordinating the variety of events which take place in the Chapel. Sandra is the mother of five and is an active Benedictine Oblate. She spends her free time continuing her theological studies and in giving spiritual direction.

And what about you...

You may not be a chaplain. You may not have any particular religious beliefs or faith life. But you probably are concerned about the people around you to some degree or another. You probably are concerned about the world you live in. Campus Ministry is a place where we can help you channel those concerns. Where you can discover your own sense of ministry. Whether it's just talking to other students about shared concerns and visions; or getting involved in the vital issues facing our world. Here's the challenge: get involved, care, make a difference.

“Here's the challenge:
get involved; care, make a difference. ”
